Upcoming Events

Outdoor Music Concert with Ted Lambert, Tony Washburn Carrie Cook and Debbie Yacovone, August 4th, 6 P.M. at the home of Sue Moore. Register HERE or call 802-585-1233.

Bios of the musicians in their own words.

Anthony `Tony' Washburn

Tony realized he had a gift for music when he learned harmonica at 13-14 years old. Tony's neighbor loaned him a guitar but Tony is left handed. The neighbor insisted that as long as he had to learn, he should learn to play right handed because back then left hand guitars were a rarity. Tony learned the `right' way. He played guitar, fiddle and sang in local bands until joining the Air Force. He played in dance halls and cabarets in Tennessee during his four years in the service.

His day job has been a carpenter, an auto mechanic, a body shop technician, a high school industrial arts instructor and an industrial arts instructor at the Vermont Dept. of Corrections where he retired in his mid 70's. Throughout all that time he has been a fixture at many night clubs, dance halls, weddings, anniversary parties, playing and singing almost every weekend. His life work now is to play backup mandolin and make Ted sound good. Tony turns 87 yrs old in June.

Ted Lambert jr.

Ted didn't take up the guitar / public singing until his early 40's. Tony and Ted's brother Don, who played Atkins style guitar and sang, helped Ted along with guitar chords and voice phrasing. Ted has almost no stage fright now and doesn't panic until he sees the audience out front. Since Tony's retirement he and Ted have been volunteering their music at various nursing homes and public venues. They get together to jam with other musicians whenever they can. Ted is younger than Tony.

Debbie Yacovone

Debbie has been playing the guitar since she was twelve years old! She loves to sing Americana and folk songs. She has been bringing music to long term care homes for many years, and it's her favorite thing to do! She picked up the Autoharp about 15 years ago and tries to channel Mother Maybelle Carter! She lives in Morrisville with her husband, Dave and she gets great inspiration from him and their two sons, Seth and Evan!

Carrie Cook

(Aka Cookie), lives in Hyde Park, VT. Started playing jazz bass when she was 10 by standing on a box. Played with Pete Seeger on his Hudson River Sloop, "Clearwater", Tall Grass Get Down, The Sky Blue Boys & Cookie (Banjo Dan & Willy Lindner), Steady Betty, the infamous Ground Hog Opry, Cookie's Hot Club (her own band) and many others.
